Today we've decided to share the complete update for all our readers who are probably still waiting for our promise fulfillment.

Navigate:

- ▼ Elon Musk Yahoo format for reviews
- ▼ Elon Musk Yahoo format billing

This update is segmented for easy understanding, so you can choose whichever aspect you would like to work with. The first segment will focus on Elon Musk getting reviews from the grassroots and less privilege. While the other areas are discussed as we go,.

But before we get started, you should understand that this update is totally based on impersonating Elon Musk, who's the owner and CEO of many companies such as SpaceX, Tesla, co-founder at PayPal payment processor, and many others, which you can read from his biography and net worth

To crown it all, he's one of the richest people in the world as of the time of writing this article, and that's enough to explain the kind of respect and honor he commands.

Though impersonating such a person might be a difficult task, you will definitely make a good amount if you can get it right, so it's worth the effort invested.

There are so many ways through which Elon Musk can be impersonated, just in case your friends come up with other similar but different formats. You shouldn't conclude that yours isn't the perfect one.

Now let's look at what we've got today. You should have understood how we write our formats here if you're a regular follower. We write just like conversations with your clients, so don't get lost. Read carefully and follow the lines. Twist what's needed and leave the rest.

Materials needed to get started

Here are a few things you need to get started with this format: Your mobile phone or PC can be useful. Anyone available will be very okay with this update. Aside from that, you will need:

- Elon Musk social profile

You cannot run this update successfully without having a well organized profile based on the person you are impersonating.

In this case, you need the profile of Elon Musk on all the important social platforms, but try by all means to avoid Twitter because he's currently the owner. It will be a foolish idea going to his platform to create a fake account that will bear his name. That might sound funny, but many will still make such a mistake and end up getting banned for it.

You can use Facebook and Instagram to create related profiles. Getting updates regarding musk is nothing difficult. These are materials you can easily get online.

Creating a fresh account might be a bad idea because Elon Musk is just too popular, so new accounts with such names can easily get monitored and suspended. You can buy already existing social media accounts and edit them to any profile of your choice. That tends to be on the safer side than the other way around.

- Premium email Address

WhatsApp is not an option in this case because almost all your clients believe that big people like Elon Musk won't have time for WhatsApp Messenger, so contacting your clients on WhatsApp is more like making a fool of yourself.

You need a professional or business email address to make things easy. Though you can still use Gmail, it won't look right, especially to some stubborn clients.

This email is where you will direct your clients when you finally capture them on Facebook or Instagram, because you can't afford to risk billing your clients on any of these platforms. You can just wake up the next morning to see that your account has been restricted.

Whenever you get the attention of a new client, you easily direct them to your email for further conversation to be on a safe side.

Getting a premium email address is not free. You need to pay some money to host it, but it's worth it because clients can easily fall for such emails. E.g contact@muskoffers.com such address will gain better recognition.

■ Suitable Payment medium

The payment method you use depends on you, but crypto currency should be considered over others because that's the perfect way to get paid online.

In addition, you can also request payment through PayPal, Skills, Google Pay, Apple Pay, etc. The decision depends on what's convenient for you and your clients.

Elon Musk Yahoo format for reviews

Having created your social media account, well and fully edited, you can now start bombing your clients, but before then, be sure your account has a good number of followers of at least 3K or more.

Start with an introduction.

Hello, I'm Elon Musk, the CEO at Tesla/SpaceX We are gathering reviews online from the grassroots, as we believe they can give the best reviews, and it's also our method of empowering the less privileged.

We have been doing this over the years, and the results have really helped in fixing our company to standard.

That's why I always use my leisure time to collect first-hand reviews, especially from those with less privilege.

You should be happy; it's your lucky day. Tell me your name and location. I also want to ask if you're already aware of the mid-year Tesla promotion that's currently running.?

Please kindly take your time and write a few lines of review about our company, either good or bad. Don't worry; we appreciate any kind of review. We have some good packages in stock for doing that. Like I've said earlier, "It's your lucky day.".

Wait for client Response

After writing all of the above lines, you will have to wait for the client response, and this will determine if you will continue or not.

Most of the clients are already aware of this scam format, so they won't give ears no matter how hard you try. Whenever you see them, you just have to ignore them and search for other clients. There's no crime in that. It's all part of the hustle.

If your clients respond with a review, you can now continue with the next stage.

Congratulations message

We are sorry we couldn't text back within the past few hours. Our desk was actually filled with tasks.

We have accessed your review, and all we can say is "Congratulations" Your name has been selected among the 20 champions of this year. Each winner goes home with the sum of $1,000,000 (one million dollars).

We also want to use this opportunity to say a very big thank you for participating in this program. Until next year again.

To claim your funds, you will have to meet the financial management for further instructions. Below are the contact details and photos of other winners on the role. Goodluck

At this junction, you will have to send them random photos, or you can exclude that section and send them the financial management details. (an email address).

That will lead us to the billing section.

Financial management

Am George Oregon handling the finance assigned to all the winners of this context, among which you are one out of 20. Please be informed that there are two ways through which you can get your money, which totals $1,000,000 according to the report on our desk.

CHEQUE DELIVERY: A check from Tesla will be delivered to your doorstep irrespective of your location, and you can easily cash it anywhere following the guidelines.

ATM CARD DELIVERY: an ATM card will be delivered to your location with details. This ATM contains the funds you won and is customized to work with any bank. It will only stop working when the money in the card balance is exhausted. The card cannot be renewed.

Tell us how you want to get your funds and drop the below details.

- Valid ID front and back (this ID will be updated on our website among the winners)

- Delivery address: "where payment will be delivered"

- Residential address: "It can be the same as your delivery address."

- Valid email address:

The general shipping and delivery fee that's to be paid by all 20 contestants is $500 each, irrespective of the location. Whenever you are ready to make this payment, details will be forwarded to you.

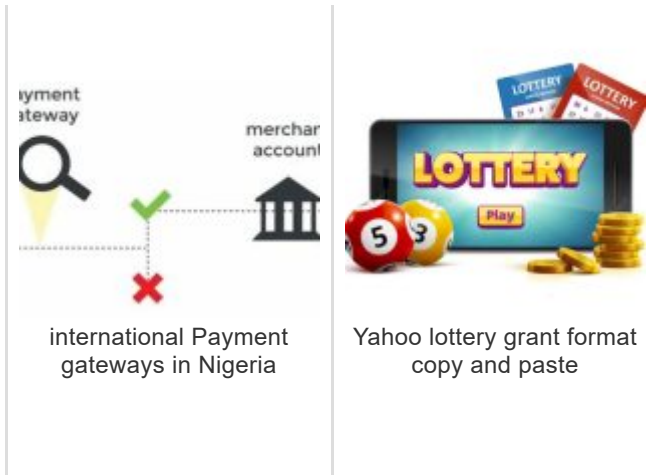

NOTE: This offer only lasts for 14 days. And if within this period your winning is yet unclaimed, it will be rolled over for next year's context. Thanks for your time. I look forward to your feedback.

This is the end of this segment, as the billing has been concluded. The rest is what you can handle.

Conclusions: We are supposed to continue with the second format, but i just discovered this article is longer than 1.5K words, which is our set standard. Let's keep the other section for another day. Thanks for reading.

Please share this article if you find it helpful. The number of shares will determine how soon the next update will be released.
